Hey Ladies! Do you think your invention will have all of America wondering “Why didn’t I think of that?” Would you like the chance to have your ingenious and marketable product seen nationwide? If so, we want to meet you! Milojo Productions is now casting women with fabulous ideas and great personalities from across America for a new series on TLC to help women inventors get their ideas off the ground and into American homes.

If you have a brilliant product and a working prototype, TLC and Kelly Ripa want to help you manufacture, market and sell it on the Home Shopping Network!

*Invention or product may not be edible or make any guarantees of satisfaction (such as “guaranteed weight loss” or “best ever.”)

If you’ve got ambition, an idea and a working prototype, apply now by emailing casting@milojo.com and requesting an application!

Casting calls are scheduled for New York, Los Angeles, Chicago and Dallas.
